

ALPHA LOOPY - BIO

Real beats and tunes created live, in front of your eyes. What started as an exploration of looping software, has now evolved into a full blown side project for Melbourne based singer/songwriter, Carolyn Oates, under the guise of Alpha Loopy. Oates had locked herself away in a little cabin in the Yarra Valley to experiment with some new gear and in a matter of a few weeks a new live instrumental project was born. Taking her back to her keyboard roots, she has created a spellbinding set of electro-pop music that is created live at every show.

With influences from Massive Attack, 60's lounge, and Romantic period orchestral music, Alpha Loopy is a punchy act embracing aural atmospherics and breakbeat rhythms to get you dancing.
